

Hosted by Glenis Willmott, MEP

□

Wednesday, 20th February 2013: 15.00-18.00

European Parliament – Room A3H-1

Rue Wiertz 60, B-1047 Brussels, Belgium

It is widely recognised that the EU Clinical Trials Regulation (CTR) trials across multiple Member States has

The most common principal objective of children's cancer trials is treatment optimisation using well-established

To mark International Childhood Cancer Day, Member of the European Parliament Glenis Willmott will be speaking at the European Parliament's Agency's European Network for Paediatric Research \(EnprEMA\) SIOPE Europe

Places are limited!

Register by filling in the registration form downloadable sending it via email at office@siope.eu / fax to:

Registration is on a "first Monday, 11th served basis" and deadline for registration February 2013.