European Institute of Women's Health issued a Press Release explaining the impact on the rising burden of lung cancer in women and commenting on the European Parliament decision regarding the Tobacco Products Directive.